

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

March seventeen-
Don't be seen
Unless you're wearing
A touch of green
A skirt, a shirt,
A button, a sock
A splash of green
From the old shamrock
If you don't wear green
So the Irish say,
You deserve a pinch
For St. Patrick's Day!

DANDELION

There was a pretty dandelion
With lovely, fluffy hair,
That glistened in the sunshine
And in the summer air.
But, oh! This pretty dandelion
Soon grew old and gray;
And, sad to tell! Her charming hair
Blew many miles away.

SPRING RAIN

The storm came up so very quick

It couldn't have been quicker.

I should have brought my hat along,

I should have brought my slicker.

My hair is wet, my feet are wet,

I couldn't be much wetter.

I fell into a river once,

But this is even better!
